ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE, COMMERCIAL AND POLITICAL.

PUBLISHED DAILY, BY S. SNOWDEN, ROYAL-STREET, ALEXANDRIA.

VOL. XXII] TUESDAY, MARCH 11, 1817. [1860

Charles County, Maryland.

FOR sale, by private contract, the valuable tract of land called Benfield, situated near the mouth of Port-Tobacco Creek. This tract of land yields to none in this county for fertility of soil, healthfulness of situation & convenience to markets. The land being in the whole about 1000 acres, is now conveniently divided into a few farms, let to good tenants for more than 1000 dollars per annum, for the present year only; it may be divided to suit purchasers. There is besides, houses for tenants, etc. etc.—a good two story frame house, with four large rooms on a floor, and four brick chimnies; the water is excellent, and the scite of the dwelling house elegant: the barn, corn house and granary are newly built. More than 100 acres of this land is fit for timothy, with which grass a few acres are at this time set.—The farmer and the man of wealth may here find health and amusement, combined with great profit, land in Charles county being at least 50 per cent below their average value. There is no county in the state of Maryland where lands offer to the cultivator equal advantages.

Also two other tracts of land called the Grange and the Mill Farm, near the town of Port Tobacco, in a healthy and genteel neighborhood, containing together about 1000 acres of excellent farming land, a large portion of which is proper for timothy meadow, of which grass there is at this time 12 or 14 acres, and as much more ready to lay down. On the Grange Farm there is a large and elegant mansion with all necessary offices, an extesive commodious garden, filled with the choicest flowers, and fruits of the best qualities in great abundance, excellent water, and proverbial for its health. In a residence of 22 years, no members of the family of the present proprietors has ever been attacked by an intermittent or fall fever of any kind.—Should it be desired by the purchaser, about 800 acres more might be added to these farms, in which case the quantity of acres advertised would amount to about 3000. Terms of sale made known on application to the subscriber.

B. NEWMAN.

If the above lands are not sold previous to the 19th March next, they will on that day be offered at public auction, without reserve.

Late and authentic Intelligence

From South America.

The following extracts were politely furnished us by a gentleman recently from the Island of St. Thomas', and are derived from a source, the respectability and intelligence of which, entitle them to implicit credit. As it is very seldom that we can obtain correct information of what is passing in the revolted provinces of South America, the details here given will no doubt prove interesting to the generality of our readers.

Extract of a letter from Margarita, Feb. 1817.

"Gen. Bolivar and Adm. Brion, arrived at Margarita late in December last, in the schooner General Marino, with 1000 muskets and a quantity of ammunition, sabres, and military clothing; and the squadron that followed under the command of captain Aug Villeret, brought a further and more considerable quantity of arms, ammunition and military stores of all sorts, so that at present we have a pretty good sudply.

General Bolivar met the most cordial welcome at Margarita Joy seemed to illumine every face as he approached, with a general acclamation of "Bolivar and Independence!" every bosom was thrown open to receive him; and there is sincerity in words and look. Bolivar would not have bartered the feelings of that moment for the wealth of empires, or the fame of Caesar. He made but a short stay at Margarita: long enough however, to review the different military posts, and give directions for the completion, of the fortifications at Pompatar, and for the establishment of the admirality at that place. From Margarita he proceeded to Barcelona accompanied by Admiral Brion, the Intendant general Zea and Brigadier, general Soublette, where the generals Arismendi, Monagas and Freytas had already assembled; as also the deputies of all the other generals whose positions at the time prevented them from attending in person, to celebrate the return of the supreme chief.

At Barcelona, six days were spent in great mirth and joy, and Bolivar whose bosom owns no passion paramount to love of country, extended his friendship to many persons against whom it was supposed he could not but feel some resentment, thus giving confidence to all that he holds animosity against none but the enemies of his country.

A clear understanding appears now to have taken place, and the people, shaking off the morbiddrousiness which has for so long a time hung upon their senses, swear to unite in the great cause of independence, and follow the chief of their choice to liberty or death. Bolivar is a man of skill and courage ardent, industrious, indefatigable and faithful, and possesses in an eminent degree the power of infusing his own feelings into the bosoms of others; and if the people are true to themselves, will lead them to glory and independence.

Free commerce has been proclaimed—no kind of merchandize is prohibited, and the duty on foreign articles has been reduced to less than half of what was chargable under the Spanish government. Arms, powder and all sorts of military stores are free of duty as well as the produce taken in payment for them.

A decree has been issued declaring the port of Guyana, Cumana, Laguira and Puerto Cabello in a state of blockade; and another in regard to sequestration which holds out the most liberal terms to European Spaniards, and can not fail to induce many to join the Independents, while on the other hand the Spanish government has issued a decree confiscating the property of every individual who does not take an active part in favor of the Royalists.

Bolivar's attentions were turned next upon a concentration of all the military forces in Chaparro; and to this end orders were sent to Gen. Pear to accelerate his operations in Guayna to effect, if possible, the entire posession of that country, and leaving in it general Sedeno with 1000 men, to march with the rest of the troops to Chaparro Similar orders were sent to Gen. Marino to close the siege of Cumana, and also an officer of high rank to combine the operations of the army of New Grenada, under the command of Gen. Urdenata, who by advices received from Gen. Zaraza, was already in communication with him. General Monagos marched to Atagua (the distance of a day's journy from Chaparro) to unite the different divisions of cavalry, and at the same time Zaraz. comm't general of the Plains, executed orders to the same effect in San Diego Cabrutica, with all the forces under his command.

Wishing in the mean time to keep the troops in Barcelona in some other service, General Bolivar consented to a proposition from general Arismendi, to march along the coast for the purpose of taking posession of several magazines of produce, and of preventing at the same time the reunion of 4 or 500 men, who on the left of the boarders of Unare were daily making excursions; and on the 6th of January. Gen. Bolivar with 700 men left Barcelona, and the day following, Gen Arismendi went by sea with 4 gun boats each carrying one 12 pounder, to join Bolivar at Periti. Gen. Arismendi continued along the coast as far as the place agreed upon to wait for the land troops who had divided into several divisions for the purpose of surrounding the Royalists, who occupied a well fortified and almost inaccessible position. Success was certain had they not deviated from the plan agreed upon; but col. Thos. Heraandez, consulting no monitor but his violent courage, insisted strongly on being permitted to attack the position, and although well acquainted with the difficulties of the ground, was so confident of success that gen Bolivar was induced to yield to his entreaties, and give him the command of 200 men To reach the place it was absolutely necessary to go up two by two, and sometimes one by one, through a thick wood in which the Royalists lay concealed, and without the least exposure of themselves kept up a destructive fire on this brave little band. But the intrepid Hermandez pushed on through every difficulty to the top of the enemy's entrenches, when in the moment of exclaiming "My country and independence." he was shot dead. Those who followed him then fled precipitately and put the rest in such a consternation that many would have been drowned in their haste to embark, had not General Bolivar come up in good time to prevent it. Gen Arismendi rallying some of the soldiers, pressed again upon the Royalists but found it impracticable to make them quit the wood.

A retreat was then made to Barcelona, where the loss was found to be 160 men, (including 6 officers,) and 50 muskets, 1 two pounder and some baggage; but neither ammunition nor stores fell into the hands of the enemy. Among the officers killed, I regret to number the first child of Gen Arismendi

This little triumph the Spaniards in Caracoas have celebrated as a decisive victory, stating the loss of the Independents at 500 men and 700 muskets But it would be well to recollect that the Caracoas Gazette which gives this statement, is the very same that fabricated an account of the death of General McGregor, so well detailed that McGregor himself when he heard it, said he scarcely knew how to contradict it. This trifling misfortune, more than compensated by the advantages we have gained in other points, does not injure in the least, the operations of the Independents, whose superiority is now well decided.

General Marino, who in consequence of Pear's luckless expedition to Guayana, (losing thereby the fruits of his victory at Juncal) had retired from Cumana, returned to that place with strong forces to lay a closer siege, and not only regained immediately his former positions but took the block-house of the Euseada [a bay] under a fire from seven vessels. He then took possession of the small hills, and the large house of the Capuchin's, as well as the pass to the mountains, and forced the enemy to concentrate his forces in the square of the town, which he intended to assault about the 28th January, but received advices from Admiral Brion, that the Royalists were about to evacuate it, and in order to prevent it, to suspend his operations until the squadron returned, which was at Barcelona, taking in provisions. It has since been ascertained that the genera there, availing himself of this circumstance, did, evacuate the place on the 6th instant, but no official news to that effect has yet reached us.

In the mean time Brion, a steady friend to the welfare of America, works constantly and with great activity; he has already brought our Navy to astonishing importance, and bids fair to realize the expectations he held out to the Independents, when he said—"this Navy, if properly attended to will soon grow up to importance, and carry consternation and amazement even to the ramparts of Cadiz, making the blood which has been spilt in senseless efforts to enslave us, flow back on the coast of the Peninsula."

Venezula must be free We have brought our fortunes and our lives to the Altar of Liberty, and must flourish or fall with the independence of our country. Without some untoward interposition of Providence, the day is not far distant when the weary soldier shall pillow on the bosom of our independent government, and bask in the sunshine of a nations gratitude.

BUENOS AYRES.

Mr. J. I. Childs, supercargo of the Lady Pelham, arrived here on Saturday last, informs, that in consequence of the fears entertained of an attack from the Portuguese, who were then blockading Monte Video, a deputation from that place had been sent to Buenos Ayres, proposing to put that province under the protection of the United Provinces, and to solicit aid from the Buenos Ayrean government in resisting the attack of what they styled the common enemy. Mr. [illegible], however, contradicts the report received by way of Boston, that the government of Buenos Ayres was to declare war against the Portuguese, and the general opinion was that they would not unite with the Monte Videans in the war against the Brazil goverment.

At the time Mr. C. left Monte Video, Dec 22, every article of produce of the country was very high. There had been some skirmishing in the interior between the troops of Artegas and the Portuguese, the result was, however unimportant, the latter had possession of Maldonado which they made their head quarters.

HORRID MURDER.

It has fallen to our lot to record an instance of atrocity, rarely to be met with in the annals of human depravity.

During the afternoon of Friday last a stranger called at the house of Mr. Hugh Fitzpatrick, in Bloomfield township, Crawford county. He was kindly received by Mr. Fitzpatrick and wife. They invited him to stay over night, and a bed was made for him before the fire on which to repose. About 2 o'clock in the morning he arose, took an axe, went to the bed where Mr. F. was sleeping, and deliberately struck him on the head. He drew the body out of the house, and then ordered Mrs. F. to deliver up what money she had, which she did, amounting to about $40. He told her she must proceed with him to Canada, and directed her to go to the stable and bring out two of the best horses. She went, but soon returned and told him she could not get them, and desired him to go for them himself. He left the house for that purpose. In the mean time Mrs. F. took up her child, about three weeks old, and made her escape. After proceeding a short distance, fearful of pursuit, she left the road and took shelter under a fallen tree, with her infant in her arms and a small dog, that had followed her, by her side. She had scarcely secreted herself when she heard this inhuman monster in pursuit of her, calling her by name, occasionally whistling for the dog, and frequently uttering the most horrid imprecations, if he got her, to treat her as he had done her husband. He approached within a rod of her, but providentially both the child and the dog remained quiet. When she discovered that he had returned to the house and finding that she must inevitably perish with her child, in that situation from the severity of the cold, she started & after wandering thro' the woods and a deep snow, happily reached the house of her nearest neighbour, a distance of two miles in a state of body and mind more easily conceived than described. The arms and legs of her infant were found severely frozen.

The alarm was soon given and pursuit made for the murderer. On Sunday a person who calls himself George Spitt Vanhollen, was found encamped in the woods, about 4 miles from where the murder was perpetrated, under circumstances manifesting the strongest evidence of guilt, and on Monday he was committed to the prison of this county.

ALEXANDRIA.

TUESDAY, MARCH 11

The following sections of the law incorporating the unchartered banks in the District of Columbia, being deemed of primary importance to those concerned, have been selected by the Editors of the Intelligencer, and published in anticipation of the regular time of publishing that law. We copy them from the Intelligencer of Saturday last, for the satisfaction of our readers who may be interested.

Sec. 20. And be it further enacted, That if the said Bank shall, at any time, fail or refuse to pay, on demand, any bill, note, or obligation, issued by said bank, in lawful currency of the United States, if required, or shall neglect or refuse to pay, on demand, in like currency, if required, any moneys received by said bank on deposite, to the person or persons entitled to receive the same, then and in such case the holder of any such note, bill or obligation, or the person or persons to demand and receive such deposite as aforesaid, shall respectively be entitled to receive and recover interest on the same, at the rate of ten per centum per annum from the time of demand until the same be fully paid and satisfied. And further it shall be lawful for Congress forthwith to revoke and declare this charter to be null and void.

Sec. 21. And be it further enacted, That unless the president and directors, for the time being, of the said bank, on the part of the stockholders, file their declaration in writing, in the office of the secretary of the treasury, within thirty days from the time of passing this act, assenting to and accepting the charter granted by this act, upon the terms and conditions herein expressed, this act shall have no force or effect, and the charter hereby granted shall be void.

Sec. 22. And be it further enacted, That if the whole amount of the capital aforesaid of said bank, shall not have been paid in, on or before the first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, then the capital stock shall be limited to the sum which shall at that time be paid in, and the books of subscription be thenceforth closed immediately, after which it shall be the duty of the president and directors to certify to the secretary of the treasury the whole amount of the capital of said bank so paid in.

Sec. 29. And be it further enacted, That from and after the fourth day of April, it shall not be lawful for any unchartered banking company, or any association, partnership, or company of individuals within the district of Columbia, to discount any notes or other securities for the payment of money, or to issue notes or bills, whether payable to order or bearer, or any other securities, promises, or orders, for the payment of money or stock; and every member, officer, or agent, of any such company, or associate, or partner, of any such association or partnership, shall be held to be guilty of a misdemeanor, and for every such offence, upon conviction thereof, may be fined in a sum not less than one hundred dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars.

Sec. 30. And be it further enacted, That whoever, as president cashier, or agent of any such company, or as an associate or partner of any such association or partnership, shall, after the said fourth day of April next, sign, countersign, or endorse, any such note, bill or security, contrary to the provisions of this act, shall, in addition to the aforesaid penalties, be held to be guilty of a high misdemeanor, and may be imprisoned for a period not less than three, nor more than twelve months, at the discretion of a jury.

Sec. 31. And be it further enacted, That all drafts, bills, or other securities, for the payment of money, discounted contrary to the provisions of this act, whether the same be payable to any such company, association, or partnership, or to any person, as agent or trustee for such company, association or partnership, or for the benefit thereof, and all contracts, bonds, deeds, penal or single bills or other instrument given to reimburse or indemnify any person for any payment or responsibility incurred by such person for any debt contracted by any dealing, contrary to the true intent and meaning of this act, shall be, and the same are hereby decreed to be, utterly void to all intents and purposes.

Sec. 32. And be it further enacted, That if any person, as president, cashier or teller, or other officer or a gent of any such banking company, or as associate or partner in any such association or partnership, shall, from and after the said fourth day of April next, issue or pass into circulation any such note, bill, draft, or other security, hereby prohibited to be issued, together with every person assenting thereto, shall be deemed and taken to have incurred the penalties of this act, notwithstanding the note, bill, or other security, so issued, may have been signed, countersigned, and endorsed before the commencement of this act.

A letter from the distinguished Dr. Backus, recently deceased, contains the following remarks, on his early thoughts of religion;

At the age of 17, I was, like very many young men, balancing between two opinions—I was, then not only theoretically but practically a Desist. Thank God, there was soon a revolution in my mind. Since then, though less than the least of Christians, I glory in the cross of Christ? I had rather have an approving God than applauding millions "The world's dread laugh" may turn a modern philosopher pale, because its applause are his all; but christianity presents a boon beyond the reach of the mob, eternal in the heavens. Twenty one years study of the Scriptures has not failed continually to increase the evidence of their divinity and strenghen my faith in them To the Christian religion we owe the civilization, science and liberty, that make us differ from the Wyandot and Caffrarian; be a Christian, would ou relish the charms of nature or art; would you make your mind the store house of great and grand ideas; would you be a statesman a hero, or a real philosopher. Be a Christian, if you wish for domestic happiness and social pleasure. The dry and frozen speculations of cold and frozen infidelity, will wither all generous and noble sentiments and feelings. They are like the prodigal's store of husks—they tend to imbrute us with swine. Pardon then my zeal against the modern Goths, who would lay waste the fabric of the civilized world—who sacreligiously plunder armour from the arsenal of revelation, to war with God and man. Had not light in Thomas Paine become darkness, he would not stab the breast that gave him suck. He might have been a Cherokee, or the property of a slave holder, had not the gospel been preached to the ancient Britons."

A schoolmaster gave the following definition of a money lender. "A money lender serves you in the present tense; he binds you in the conditional mood; keeps you in the subjective, and ruins you in the future.

A CONVENIENT WAY TO PAY FOR NEWSPAPERS.

Says neighbour Rednose to neighbour Chatterbox, "I'll tell you what, now: I want to take a newspaper, but fegs, I can't pay for it." Oh friend, says Chatterbox, I'll put you in a way to pay for it; "Ah how?" There is going to be a shooting match to-morrow—now instead of going there and firing away dollars and half dollars, keep your money and you can then easily pay for a year's newspaper. "Oh, must go to the shooting; I wish to see a man who has promised to meet me there."

Well, if you will go, I'll put you in another way You spend at the tavern, on an average, the price of one mug of flip every week; reduce that one half, & you will have enough to pay for your paper, and purchase an arithmetic into the bargain. "Well, upon my honor I'll try it," says Rednose" Hamp. Gaz.

Valuable Land for Sale.

Under the authority of a decree of the Superior Court of Chancery held at Fredericksburgh, in the suit of Giles Fitzhugh against A. and J Schofield, the subscriber will offer at public sale for cash, at Gooding's tavern on the premises, on Tuesday the 18th March next, a valuable tract of Land, containing about 1616 acres, situate in Fairfax county on both sides of the Little River Turnpike Road and of Accotank Run, about 9 miles from Alexandria & nearly the same distance from the city of Washington. Part of a large tract called Ravensworth, and formerly owned by Mr. Giles Fitzhugh. On this tract there is a very valuable Mill Seat, towards the improvement of which considerable progress has lately been made by digging out and preparing the races, & collecting a large portion of the building material which are now on the spot: the scite also affords room for an extensive manufacturing establishment.

Most of the great roads leading to the towns above mentioned, fall into the Little River Turnpike Road a short distance above the land proposed to be sold, and a new turnpike road leading directly from the land to the city of Washington and Georgetown has lately been laid off and part of it finished. The soil is well adapted to farming and the use of plaister and clover, and a large portion of the land is already well taken in clover—The various advantages this land possesses render it well worth the attention of enterprizing men. A great number of lots have been laid off for a town proposed to be established along the turnpike road.

The sale will commence precisely at 12 o'clock, and the land will be laid off into lots to suit purchasers. Any chartered bank paper declared to be current in Fairfax county, by the court of that county, will be received in payment

JAMES KENNEDY & SON,

BOOKSELLERS, KING STREET,

Have just received from LEE'S PATENT MEDICINE Store No. 46 Maiden Lane, N. York

A FRESH SUPPLY

Of the following genuine Medicines.

For the prevention and cure of Bilious and Malignant Fevers, is recommended.

Hahn's Anti-Bilious Pills

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings, in several parts of the West Indies, and the Southern & Middle States, particularly in N. York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Petersburg, Richmond Norfolk, Edenton, Wilmington, Charleston, and Savannah. The testimony of a number of persons at each of the above places can be adduced who have reason to believe, that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives, when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy, founded on mere assertion.

It is not, indeed, presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience, for believing that a dose of these Pills, taken once in every two weeks, during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventative; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases, their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate, and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation, and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile & prevent its morbid secretions—to restore & amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which is so often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance—they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

HAMILTON'S WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES.

Which have cured an immense number of persons of both sexes, of every age, and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from worms, and from obstructions or foulness in their stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of, as operating with violence: on the contrary, a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and perfectly so—it contains nothing but what is constitutionally innocent, and is also mild in its operation cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels, of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms, and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

DESCRIPTION OF WORMS.

And the symptoms by which they are known:

Worms which infest the human body, are chiefly of four kinds, viz.—The Teres, or large round worm; the Ascaride, or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitine, or short, flat, white worm; and lastly, the Tænia, or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long, and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food, and sometimes voracious; purging, with slimy & [illegible]; vomiting; large and hard [illegible] pains and sickness at the stomach; slow fever, with small and [illegible] pulse; a dry cough; excessive [illegible]; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face [illegible] and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms, should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success, in all complaints similar to those above described.

Those on this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent the vomiting purging of cholera infantum—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys the most [illegible] part of our citizens likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number who were in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout asthma, gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc.

The Genuine Persian Lotion

So celebrated among the fashionables throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellant mineral (the basis of other lotions) and of unparralled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflamatory redness, scurf, tetters, [illegible] worms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c. The Persian Lotion operates mildly, without impeding the natural, insensible perspiration, which is essential to health, yet its effects are speedy and permanent, rendering the skin delicately soft and smooth and improving the complexion.

The Restorative Powder for the teeth and Gums.

This excellent preparation comforts and strengthens the gums, preserves the enamel from decay, and cleanses and whitens the teeth, by absorbing all the acrimonious slime and foulness, which suffered to accumulate, never fails to injure and finally ruin them.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative.

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of the various complaints resulting from dissipated pleasures, juvenile indiscretions, residence in climates unfavourable to the constitution, the immoderate use of tea, frequent inoxications or any other destructive intemperance, the unskilful or excessive use of mercury, the diseases peculiar to females at certain period of life, bad lyings in, &c.
